

NEGRO ALTERED U. S. CURRENCY

Judge Woodrough Sends George Lewis to Leavenworth.

BOY IS LIBERATED

Liquor Cases Take Most of Federal Court's Attention.

Found guilty on two counts charging the counterfeiting of United States paper currency, George Lewis, negro, was sentenced to one year and one day in the federal prison at the conclusion of his trial before federal court Monday. Lewis was accused of altering one-dollar bills and then passing them for $10 bills. The jury before which he was tried returned a verdict of guilty within an hour of leaving the courtroom and sentence was passed by the court immediately thereafter.

T. J. Prazier, charged with violating the Prohibition amendment, by transporting liquor through the state, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100. Claude Barrett and Fred Davis, charged with introducing liquor, were dismissed when the court was informed the men had served a sentence for this offense. Having been convicted under the state law.

Louis C. Morgan, a 14-year-old boy, was fined $10 and the fine suspended after pleading guilty to stealing United States mail. The boy admitted robbing postoffice boxes at Sapulpa, but because of his age the court was lenient.

Charged with malicious destruction of government property, and E. L. Jones and R. E. Kiley, charged with introducing liquor, were continued. The case against Edgar Powell, accused of introducing liquor, began Monday and will be continued this morning.

Because of the delay in train service Judge W. R. Woodrough of Omaha, special judge called by Judge R. L. Williams, who presided at the trial, did not arrive in Tulsa until Monday morning and court did not convene until 11 o'clock.

SAYS HE DEFRAUDED HER
Former Wife Claims Husband Obtained Property by Trickery.

Declaring her former husband under promise of a remarriage obtained from her possession of valuable property in Oklahoma county known as the Eagle river ranch, suit in which judgment for $15,000 was asked, was filed in superior court Monday by Emma J. Bailey against John H. McAlester.

After 16 years of married life, according to the petition, the plaintiff and defendant were divorced August 22, 1915, the plaintiff allowing her husband to continue to look after their joint property interests. Later, according to her statements, he told her he wanted to remarry and under this promise and by other inducements, she gave him control of the Oklahoma county ranch valued at $22,000, she taking a residence property in Tulsa valued at $6,000. She says that at the time of this agreement he told her the Oklahoma county property was worth no more than the Tulsa city property. Later she claims, after he refused to remarry her, she discovered the ranch was worth many times the value of the city property and she now asks the difference between the real value of the two properties.

"I WILL PRAISE IT AS LONG AS I LIVE"
MRS. LOWRY SAYS

Her Years of Trouble Were Completely Overcome by Orgatone Treatment.

"Although I was under the best treatment and tried many different kinds of medicine during the past several years, I never got any relief until I commenced taking Orgatone," said Mrs. Maude Lowry of Ranger, Texas, while in the Ranger Drug company the other day.

"I suffered from stomach trouble and nervous indigestion," continued Mrs. Lowry, "and when I commenced taking Orgatone I was so worn out and run-down that I was hardly able to get about. After eating a good meal and I could hardly get a good breath. I was in a worse condition all the time until it looked like nothing would ever relieve my suffering."

"One day I noticed a statement in the paper from a person who had been suffering just like I did and had been greatly relieved by taking Orgatone. I thought that if it helped them it might do me some good, so I commenced taking it right away. In a very short time I began to improve, and by the time I had finished my second bottle I was feeling like a different person altogether. In the few years of suffering and trouble I have been completely overcome and I feel better and stronger than I have in a long time. I can eat anything I want now—things I couldn't dare touch before taking Orgatone—and I never suffer afterwards. I am not nervous like I was and sleep just fine every night. Orgatone treatment is the greatest medicine I have ever seen and as long as I live I will praise it for the good it has done me."

Orgatone is not a so-called patent medicine, but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Tulsa by Ray H. Gorman's Retail Store exclusively under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Agents are the Retail Store, West Tulsa.—Adv.

Croup

"I don't think there is a more anxious time for parents than when their children have croup. Without they are prepared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they must wait for the doctor and listen to the choking, metallic cough and watch their little one gasping for breath."

You know the great danger of croup is the formation of a false membrane in the larynx, and until this is expelled relief cannot be obtained, and the spasmodic choking continues. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in frequent doses. It will loosen this membrane and cause the child to expel it by vomiting.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an absolutely safe and certain remedy for croup, and if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack.

Yours for Health —Granny Chamberlain

Court House—Next Door

SAYS NAME WAS DAMAGED

Sarah Simpson Sues for $10,000 From the Piggy Wiggly Co.

Alleging her reputation has been damaged to the extent of $10,000 by false and slanderous statements made by the defendants in the presence of other persons, judgment for that amount was asked in superior court yesterday by Sarah Simpson against the Piggy Wiggly Oklahoma company.

The plaintiff states that she entered the Piggy Wiggly store, 21 East First street, on November 2, having in her possession at the time of entering a 15-cent glass of mustard purchased at another store. While in the store, the manager and agent of the defendant company,

Jason Setrin, she declares, before a number of other patrons, accused her of stealing the mustard from the shelves of the Piggy Wiggly store. This she denies, and asks $10,000 actual and $5,000 punitive damages.
